Dear Mr. McCabe,

I hope this message finds you well. Attached, please find my formal request for access to specific corporate records and governance updates for Next Bridge Hydrocarbons, Inc., pursuant to Texas Business Organizations Code § 21.218 and Nevada Revised Statutes § 78.310. This is my second request, following my initial submission on November 18, 2024, which has not been adequately addressed.

The attached letter outlines the requested documents and information, which are sought in good faith to evaluate corporate governance, investigate potential breaches of fiduciary duty, and ensure transparency for shareholders. I kindly request that the materials be provided within five (5) business days of receipt of this correspondence. If additional time is needed, please provide a written explanation and a proposed timeline for compliance.

Please confirm receipt of this email and the attached letter. I am available to discuss any questions or clarifications at jvetrano999@gmail.com. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter, and I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
Jennifer Vetrano
Shareholder, Next Bridge Hydrocarbons, Inc.

Jason and Jason,

This appears to be a part of the continued harassment campaign against the company in an effort bankrupt us. I ignored it last time. Do you think I need to respond to this one. Also, our PR firm has received the same letter from Traudt and his crew. I was going to ignore it as well. Please let me know your thoughts.
